Special Thanks to Daisy Troop #194

On Tuesday, April 2nd, without being asked, Kim Renkema's Daisy Troop #194 took it upon themselves to do a little spring cleaning in Wedgewood. Kim and 14 kindergartners gathered trash from the corner of 81st & Poplar, to the park, through the greenbelt and back up to 81st & Poplar. Anyone think they can top that?

BA City Trash Day

On Saturday May 4, the City will open the Maintenance Center (1700 W. Detroit – behind Rhema) to BA residents who want to dispose of trash. Items can include appliances (must not contain hazardous materials), tree limbs, brush, old furniture, etc. Hours will be 8 AM to 6 PM.

Will's Words of Wisdom

In an attempt to fill the front page of the Wedge Word, we offer the following bit of wisdom from Will Rogers (not to be confused with Bill Rogers, a current resident and former President of the Wedgewood HOA).

" When I die, I want to die like my grandfather who died peacefully in his sleep. Not screaming like all the passengers in his car."

Tuesdays in the Park

BA's Parks and Recreation Department, along with the BA Arts and Humanities Council have compiled the following schedule for the 2002 Tuesdays in the Park Concert Series:

June 4th	Gospel Night
June 11th.	Les Gilliam, "Oklahoma balladeer"
June 18th.	Latino Music with Mez Clave
June 25th.	Jazz Night with Frank Adams Quartet & Lori Adams

Concerts begin at 7PM at Central Park (1500 S. Main). (They're on Tuesdays otherwise we'd probably be calling it something else).
